

In order to create a world where every child, adolescent and young person is safe, protected and thriving, we must first know the facts.

In Uganda, both girls and boys experience unacceptably high rates of sexual and physical violence

Percentage of females and males who experienced sexual or physical violence prior to age 18

The Government of Uganda launched the VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN REPORT in 2018.

35%

59%

SEXUAL 17% VIOLENCE

PHYSICAL 68% VIOLENCE

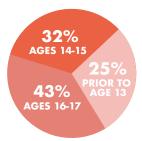

For many youth, the first experience of sexual intercourse is physically forced or coerced

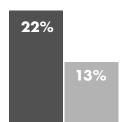

(among those who had sexual intercourse before age 18)

Girls face particularly high risks of sexual violence, often with devastating consequences

Age of first incident of sexual violence among those who experienced sexual violence prior to age 18

Experienced sexual violence in childhood

Sexual violence is linked to negative health outcomes

Did not experience sexual violence in childhood

11% 6%

Percentage of females and males who ever thought of suicide

Perpetrators of sexual violence are often someone known to the child or adolescent

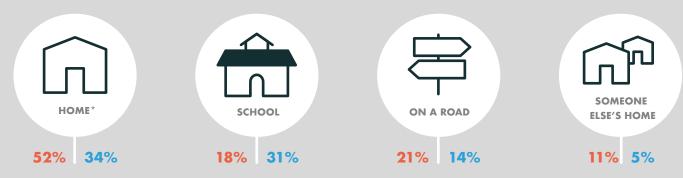

Most common perpetrators of first incident of sexual violence as reported by females and males who experienced sexual violence prior to age 18

^{*}Intimate partner is defined as spouse, boyfriend, girlfriend or romantic partner

Sexual violence often occurs in familiar locations

Location of first incident of sexual violence experienced by females and males prior to age 18

^{*}Respondent's and/or perpetrator's home

Girls and boys who experience sexual violence are not getting the support and services they need. Females and males who told someone, sought and/or received services for sexual violence, among those who experienced sexual violence prior to age 18 53% TOLD SOMEONE 57% 10% SOUGHT SERVICES 5%

The Violence Against Children Surveys are nationally representative household surveys led by national governments, with technical support from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) as part of the Together for Girls Partnership.

