MIRACLE FOUNDATION

Youth for Social Impact

Miracle Foundation is excited to launch the Youth for Social Impact program. This 8-week workshop benefits youth (ages 17-30) who have experience of family separation to develop skills to work with their local communities. These youth led initiatives will address pressing challenges in the areas of transitioning from institution to family care and family strengthening. At the end of the program, youth will have the opportunity to apply for a chance to receive a $4,000 grant to implement their project ideas with guidance from Miracle Foundation.

10+ hours of guided skills development and mentoring

Connect with youth from around the world
