PRACTICAL WAYS TO HELP US COPE

- Even when it feels hard, try to have some daily routines for yourself.
- Routines help children feel safe. If you can, do daily routines like meals or schoolwork.
- Helping someone else can make you feel better too.
- Our children learn calm and kindness from us

"Do not fear, for I am with you... I will strengthen you and help you."
(Isaiah 41:10)

God promises to be with us and help us. He can help you cope.
HELP CHILDREN COPE WITH CRISIS

- Children may be scared, confused and angry. They need your support.
- Listen to children when they share how they are feeling.
- Accept how they feel and give them comfort.
- Be honest but try to stay positive.
- Every evening, praise children and yourself for something.

[God] comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.”

(2 Corinthians 1:3-4)

Ask God to give you the strength you need to provide the support your children need.
5 MINUTES OF POSITIVE TIME WITH CHILDREN

- Ask children what they would like to do.
- Listen to them, look at them.
- Give them your full attention.
- Playing with and talking to children every day helps them feel secure.

"Jesus said, 'Let the little children come to me'."
(Matthew 19:14)

Our time and attention are great gifts we can give children.
COPING WITH STRESS, UPSET AND ANGER

- Find someone who you can talk to about how you are feeling.
- Losing your temper? Give yourself a 10-second pause.
- Breathe in and out slowly five times. Then try to respond in a calmer way.
- Be proud of yourself every time you try this.

“Is anyone among you in trouble? Let them pray.

(James 5:13)

Pause. Say a prayer and ask God to give you the strength you need for this moment.

Dear God,
"Keep me safe, my God, for in you I take refuge." (Psalm 16:1)
Please help me and give me strength as I keep my children safe.
Amen
PROTECTING OUR CHILDREN FROM TRAFFICKERS

- Teach your children that traffickers lie to get someone to work or have sex for them.
- Traffickers can be men, women, couples, in military clothes or coloured jackets.
- Trust your instincts. If something feels strange, get out immediately.
- Ask to see a photo ID before you accept anyone’s help, transport or a place to stay. If local police are there, check with them.

These will help you avoid danger, and find the honest people who want to help.

Dear God,
“Save me, Lord, from lying lips and from deceitful tongues.” (Psalm 120:2)
Please provide the help we need and protect us from those that would harm us.
Amen.
